

K-Love is a vital resource for the local area, providing an effective ministry for those in their time of need. Without K-Love, we would be left with only radio stations that are happy to use vile language and certainly not family-friendly!

Keeping K-Love on the air is vital for the community and serves to provide a balance to a secular world.